Dr. Daniel Ellsberg
Assistant to the
Assistant Secretary of Defense
Department of Defense
Washington, D.C.

Dear Dr. Ellsberg:

I am delighted that you are going to be able to participate in our Colloquium on Vietnam this Saturday. We have your speech scheduled for 1 p.m. in our auditorium. We would like for you to speak for about forty-five minutes following which we will have a reactor panel of four faculty members and students who will comment on your talk and ask you questions. We will expect you to present a rationale for the United States policy in Vietnam with a particular focus on our military activities.

If you wish us to have you picked up at the airport, please telegraph or telephone me regarding your time of arrival. I would also like to know when you plan to depart. We would be very happy to have you as our guest Friday night or Saturday night or both if you can arrange to spend that time with us. I would suggest that the latest you should plan to arrive on our campus would be 12:30 on April 24 and you should allow at least forty-five minutes travel time from the airport to Yellow Springs.

I am looking forward to meeting you this weekend. Please let me know if you have any questions or if I can be of any help to you.

Sincerely yours,

Walter Sikes
Associate Dean of Students
